John J. Scharschug, a retired farmer, residing at 474 Concord St., Aurora, Ills., says: "Three years ago I was a sufferer from backache and other kidney disorders and for months exhausted all my knowledge of mediciné in an endeavor to obtain relief. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me, and time has not diminished my estimation of this preparation. Not only did Doan's Kidney Pills cure me at that time but although over three years have elapsed there has not been a symptom of a recurrence of the trouble. I consider this preparation to be a wonderful kidney remedy and just as represented."

A free trial of this great Kidney medicine which cured Mr. Scharschug will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by all druggists, price 50 cents per box.

Father of Smart Young Man Had Good Reason to Doubt His Own Judgment.

Not long ago a youth residing in the city of churches had adopted the pompadour method of combing his hair, and his fa-ther din't like it. The latter had an idea that there was only one sensible and manly way to comb the hair, and that was to part it on the side—either side. Everything else was dudish and affected in his opinion. Only a woman was privileged to take liberties with old established methods, relates the Chicago Chronicle the Chicago Chronicle.

Acts Gently; Acts Pleasantly; Acts Beneficially: Acts truly as a Laxative. Syrup of Figs appeals to the cultured and the well-informed and to the healthy, because its component parts are simple and wholesome and because it acts without disturbing the natural functions, as it is wholly free from every objectionable quality or substance. In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal virtues of Syrup of Figs are obtained from an excellent combination of plants known to be medicinally laxative and to act most beneficially.
